

Dear FCC leadership -

I enjoy the variety of program material available on my XM satellite radio and am strongly against the FCC imposing any limits or restrictions on the content of material available - especially weather and traffic reports. As I travel across this great nation, I rely on the uniform signal I receive from XM satellite to keep me informed of up to the minute weather changes and traffic problems.

Regards,

Wayne Lindholm